About Ragini Kumar

Ragini Kumar is the lead of the Regulatory Affairs and Public Policy vertical at Startup India, Government of India. She has over seven years of experience in Public Policy, Regulatory Affairs, and Government affairs.

Over the course of her career, she has worked with stakeholders across government, private sector, and civil society on issues related to Data Protection and Intermediary Liability Guidelines as well as emerging technologies like gaming and cryptocurrency regulation.

In her present role, she is working towards improving the ease of doing business, easing funding opportunities, and reducing compliance mandates on startups. Her role enables her to interact closely with the Central Government Ministries sharing inputs on further enhancing the ecosystem for startups in India.

Before joining Startup India, Ragini worked with the Albright Stonebridge Group, a Washington DC-based Strategic consulting, and Ikigai Law, a tech and innovation-based startup. She has read law from the O.P. Jindal Global University apart from the management and leadership degree she got from The Vedica Scholars Programme.
